Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The people of the state of South Dakota have been fortunate to be the recipients of the endeavors of a special class of individuals devoted to making our state the great place it is to live through their service; and,

Whereas, Debra Jane Hass has devoted more than 36 years of service to the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Debra has dedicated her career to helping and serving the employees of the Department of Public Safety, Office of Driver Licensing; and,

Whereas, Debra is a native of South Dakota, born in Sioux Falls, and has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

Whereas, Debra has a love of nature and is committed to the preservation of all wildlife; and,

Whereas, Debra is a devoted mother to her daughter, Jessica, and is looking forward to spending time together during retirement; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the contributions of this employee for her many years of employment:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 31, 2009, as in South Dakota, and join Debra's family and friends in wishing her a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-ninth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Nine.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
